The Pee-wees Playhouse Calender

RESTORED AND UPDATED FOR 2026 BY DURIN

Christmas, 1989...

Someone gave me the Pee-Wee Herman calendar as a gift. I wish I could remember who as it was one of the best things gifts I've ever received. After 1990 passed, I unwisely chopped it up and used the art and photos to decorate lockers, walls, book covers, etc. I even re-scripted a section as part of an underground 'zine I published in my senior year of high school. I still have a handful of pages, missing large, tetris-like chunks or curled over with age and poor packing.

After finding a lovingly preserved and well-scanned set of all the original pages, I set out to try to recreate the calender for 2026, almost four decades after the original was published. As the days of the year did not line up, I wrote a program that shifted and reorganized each calendar grid to match 2026's days. It took a lot of clean up, and there are some odd time warps as it wrapped trailing squares from the end of a month back to the beginning, but honestly, I find it even funnier this way. I used AI to change 1990 to 2026 on the banner images as closely to the original handwritten type as it could, with additional hand editing of everything to restore it as closely as I could to the original artwork.

I'm pretty happy with how it turned out. Paul Reubens remains one of my most cherished actors, artists, and comedians, heavily influencing my tastes and just generally bringing me and millions of people a lot of joy. I hope you enjoy this restored and updated calendar as my Christmas gift to you.
